THE GREAT AMERICAN SONGBOOK
Sixth Annual Violin Scholarship Concert
Friday, February 23 at 7:00pm
First Lutheran Church and School
2900 W. Carson Street, Torrance

Arts Alive is proud to announce that your child is invited to perform at our annual Strings Scholarship Concert. This will include over 120 strings players from several schools including First Lutheran School, South Bay Junior Academy, Nativity School, St. Catherine Laboure, Immaculate Conception School, St. Philomena and this year we welcome new participants St. Anthony of Padua School, St. James School, Holy Trinity, and Nativity School (LA). We will also be recognizing the violin scholarship awardees of 2017. Entry to this concert is a suggested donation of $10.00 per adult.

Where do we go?

Student Check in is between 6:00pm and 6:15pm at Faith Hall. Parking lots have limited parking, so please allow extra time to find a space. Faith Hall is reserved for student performance and assigned parent helpers ONLY. If you wish to be a parent helper, reach out to your child's teacher. Any adult in the room must be badged by an Arts Alive staff member at check-in.

Please note:

Younger players (3rd grade and under) may leave the stage and sit with their parents after the first songs they play. For your safety, performers who leave before the end of the concert, MUST check out at the desk in Faith Hall.

What should my child wear?

- Girls Formal means: Party or summer dresses with tights/stocking and dress shoes, socks/tights, hair dressed
- Boys Formal means: Pants/slacks, long sleeved white shirts with tie (and jacket or vest optional), and black shoes. Boys please tuck in shirts – belt preferred.
- Red, white and blue theme encouraged but not required

The Arts Alive Strings Scholarship:

This scholarship is offered to help a younger player in need of financial aid to improve on their instrument - partial or full tuition will be offered for the year 2018. Applications are open until Friday, February 23 at 9:00 a.m. Visit artsalivela.org to download a copy.
